

DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING

REPORT ON

TWO DAYS' SEMINAR

ON

“UNCONVENTIONAL CIVIL ENGINEERING”

(Industry Intensive Initiative)

The Department of Civil Engineering organised a two days seminar on “UNCONVENTIONAL CIVIL ENGINEERING”(Industry Intensive Initiative) on July 6-7 , 2017 .

VENUE A.P. SHAH INSTITUTE OF ENGINEERING (Seminar Hall)

DATE: July 6-7,2017

AUDIENCE Final Year Students pursuing Civil Engineering.

ORGANISED BY Organized by APSIT under continuous teaching learning process.

TOTAL STUDENTS
ATTENDED 70

The speakers invited to deliver lectures were

- 1) Prof (Dr.) A .R .Kambekar ,(Prof & Head ,Civil Department ,SPCE,Andheri),
- 2) Prof V.B.Deshmukh ,(Associate Professor ,Structural Engg.Dept.,VJTI,Matunga)
- 3) Mr.Deepak Kawale (Assistant General Manager ,Metro Rails ,Mumbai) and
- 4) Er.Aditya Deshmukh,(Structural Consultant ,,Mumbai)

The seminar covered various topics like understanding the importance of audit in the field of geotechnical engineering, a brief introduction to bridge engineering and also focusses on the metro development.

After completion the seminar, the students could identify the various opportunities related to current trends in the field of metro development.

A few Glimpses of the lecture.

