

REPORT

SEMINAR ON EMBEDDED SYSTEMS

8th February 2018,

Seminar hall.

The seminar was organized for EXTC department for students of all years. It got started by 3pm and lasted for 2 hours. There were around 100 students attending the seminar. The speaker of seminar was Mr. Anand Deshpande, who's currently working with L&T technology services for embedded ,telecom & testing domain. Sir has had total 25 years of experience ,Initial 10 years working experience as entrepreneur for electronics manufacturing company and current 15 years with L&T technology .Topics covered were software verification & validation technology ,various steps required for testing any embedded systems. Sir also highlighted SW certification ISTQB (International Software Testing Qualification Board).

The seminar was quite informative and interactive, students got to know vital facts of their core branch and various courses for the same.

