About the event:

APSIT has inaugurated AI-ML club and DevOps Club on 8th September, 2022. Mr. Sandeep Khuperkar, CEO, Co-founder Data Science Wizards, inaugurated both the clubs. These Clubs are a community of students who are enthusiastic and inspired about the new fields of AI-ML and DevOps. These clubs have many exciting events planned like podcasts with alumni, talks by experts, hackathons, projects, blogs and workshops. Besides, members will get to connect with like-minded people and discuss and learn and collaborate, to drive the overall growth of these communities at APSIT. Prof. Jaya Gupta is leading AI-ML club in which Mr. Pritesh Tiwari, Founder, Chief Data Scientist Data Science Wizards, is associated as an industry expert. Prof. Neha Deshmukh is leading DevOps club with Mr. Sandeep Khuperkar as an industry expert. Mr. Sandeep Khuperkar & Mr. Pritesh were chief guests of the event. Both guided APSITians about current industry adoption of AI & ML and DevOps as well as available carrier opportunities, platforms available for collaborative learning activities in both of these domains. Core team of Faculties & students will lead these clubs in guidance of Industry Experts & Alumni with motive of student's enablement & community at large.
